last evening her act. For the first time, we may safely say we have a singer worthy to follow in a Concert of Beethoven's Hammon, and to say that is in ensuring her in a likely niche. No one will question the skill, unerring literary passion and power of that Quartet—yet was nothing so coldly received by the audience last evening.

We have left ourselves no space to speak of the Concert in detail, which we will now omit another time, remarking only now that all her share of the Concert last evening was an illustration and confirmation of what we have written. Benedict and Bolte were, as they always are, admirable, and the chorus and orchestra were most carefully balanced and effective.

Another Legal Telegraph Case.

Concord, Oct. 24.—The case of Professor Morse and F. O. J. Smith against Henry O'Reilly, respecting the Lake Erie Telegraph Line, goes up to the U. S. Supreme Court as the Judges disagreed on several great points. This case arises under the original contract between Professor Morse and Mr. O'Reilly, and does not relate to Bixby's patent, which was used on a portion of the O'Reilly line. It was on the first hearing of this case that year that Judge Nelson was said to have declared his patent illegal and void. A recent Journal reported that both sides, Mr. F. O. J. Smith and Mr. O'Reilly's counsel, called at N. Y. in view of O'Reilly's counsel.

Great Excitement.

The colored population of this city and their political Committee, were considerably agitated this morning by the announcement that a fugitive slave had been taken in our jail last evening and sent to the jail back on the next morning. Accordingly, quite a large number of colored people, armed with lumbangs and bows and arrows, were promptly at the Depot, to collect the slaves. After a diligent search, no fugitive was to be found. A guard was placed around the jail to prevent the fugitives from taking away. The Marshal and Sheriff were watched with intense interest, and after some rousing and inflammatory speeches, the crowd was finally dispersed, on information being given to them that the fugitive slave was no other than a white man, arrested on a warrant from his Honor Justice Conkling. Thus we have to record the first arrest, and its attendant excitement, under the Fugitive Slave Law.

Gen. Nye of Madison County is announced to address the Loco-Foco of Oswego, at the City Hall this evening. From the demonstration made he will no doubt have a large audience.
